Dear Mr. Marty:

I want to express my appreciation for your participation in our Executive Seminar for new Senior Intelligence Officers last month.

Your remarks to the group were well received. This was reflected in the end-of-course evaluations which reported how valuable and stimulating our participants found your description of executive leadership and management in your company. Clearly, the emphasis that Westinghouse places on quality of product and services is relevant to our organization as well. The success of your presentation reinforces my belief that it is extremely important for our Senior Intelligence Officers to broaden their understanding of how organizations outside our own operate.

Further, I appreciate your generous offer of assistance to those attending the Seminar.

I thank you for the time and effort you devoted to this group. It was by all measures a very successful evening.

Sincerely,

Director
of
Training and Education
